

I do not support any the approval of SEBAC contracts. Inflation is an issue EVERYONE is facing yet those of us in the private sector are not getting guaranteed wage increases, bonuses, etc. As such, state employees should not be given preferential treatment at the expense of all taxpayers. State employees already enjoy better packages than most private sector employees and approving these new contracts is fiscally irresponsible as well as unfairly burdens taxpayers.

Thank you,

Lauren Stevens

Darién, CT

Sent from my iPhone